

The Bishops of Beverley, Burnley, Pontefract and Whitby, invite you to a

Sacred Synod

on Thursday 23rd September 2010, 11.00am until 3.00pm.

For 'traditionalist' bishops, priests and deacons of the Northern Province who are opposed to the ordination of women to the episcopate and priesthood, to be held at Ss Barnabas & John, Belle Isle, Leeds, LS10 3DN.

The Sacred Synod will hear reports of the recent General Synod decisions on the proposed provision for those of our constituency should women be admitted to the episcopate of the Church of England. There will be some consideration of our future options, then an open forum for debate and the opportunity to put questions.

A light lunch and hot drinks will be provided. A donation of £7.00 is invited to cover costs.

Directions to Belle Isle.

By bus from Leeds City Centre: take the No 12, 13 or 13a from the Corn Exchange. Ask for Belle Isle Circus. The bus stop is immediately after the large roundabout, and the church is by the bus stop.

By car from the east/M62: at Junction 29 follow the Leeds sign, briefly joining the M1, get into the right-hand lane for Leeds Centre/M621. Exit Junction 7 for Stourton. Follow the A61/M621 sign. Follow the A61 under the bridge. At the fifth set of lights (all within a short distance) turn left following the Hunslet/Belle Isle sign. At the church tower filter left (Mecca Bingo on the right after the filter). Continue under the motorway bridge, up the hill. At the top of the hill there is a huge roundabout, take the second exit (Belle Isle Road, dual carriageway). Almost immediately on your left is a bus stop. Next to this is a large yellow sign for the church.

By car from the south: follow the Leeds Centre/M621 sign, then as above.

By car from the West/M62: follow the M621 signs into Leeds, take Exit 6 for Middleton. At the end of the filter road turn right, under the motorway bridge, up the hill, then as above.

Please return this slip, as soon as possible and certainly by 10th September 2010, to the Reverend Tim Burrell, 8 St Hilda's Road, Harrogate, HG2 8JY.

I will be attending the Sacred Synod at Belle Isle on Tuesday 16th May 2006, at 11.00am.
